TO NAME THREE MEMBERS
In the letter referred to the board of expressed the opinion that it is the duty of the executive committee of the college to nominate only seven members of the Virginia Hospital staff, and that the Administrative Board is to name three additional members. It deciated its intention to act upon the right to name three members of the staff, based on its acknowledged right to name three members of the staff, based on its acknowledged right to name three members, and the feeling that the marginal member should be named by the board, in view of the fact that the hospital is to be supported entirely by the city.

It was stated last night that the marginal members and the feeling that the marginal member should be named by the board, in view of the fact that the hospital is to be supported entirely by the city.

sure his aim. Henry H. Richards, of Front Royal, a special internal revenue agent, deliberately sent a bullet crashing into his brain yesterday morning in his boarding place in Harrisonburg. Until two weeks ago, Richards was employed under Colonel W. H. Chapman in the local office, and is a material witness in two important cases now pending in the United States District Court. The suicide occurred in a room in the home of Mrs. Charles E. Frazier, on Franklin Street, a .38-callbre re-volver being the weapon employed by Richards. No note nor any kind of ex-planation was left, but the act is at-Salith, are now under indictment, and their cases are docketed for trial in October. Richards, who testified at the commissioner's hearing against them. and who claims to have overheard a conversation which would seriously in-volve them, is the principal witness for the government, and it was on his testimony that the men were held for the higher court. Richards also aided materially in working the cases against the Anthonys, alleged moonshiners, who were caught after many difficul-ties in Louisa Count.

CONDUCT INVESTIGATION

Richards had been stationed in Harrisonburg for two weeks, having been transferred there from field work in this district. He was in the revenue service for eight years, previous to 1900, when he resigned. He was reappointed several months ago, and his work since then has been of fine order. He was a member of a prominent Warren County family. His father was the late Sheriff J. R. Richards and his brothers, West. material warren County family. His father criminal was the late Sheriff J.
